

COORDINATE YOUR CHINA

Shelves aren't just for storage – they're also great for showing off a collection of ceramics or accessories. Make sure they're on grouped levels if you're displaying items, and mix and match colours and use different pieces for a tiered effect. Rustic vessels suit country-style schemes, while bold shades add an eye-catching element to more modern kitchens.

■ Chichester 5ft Open Rack Dresser hand-painted in Honed Slate, Neptune, from £1,095. Pottery by Susie Watson Designs, from £16 for a straight mug

ADD A TOUCH OF FRO

Kitchen nooks and crannies can become dust traps, so contain your favourite items within a glass-fronted unit. It has the impact of an open display without the chore of frequent cleaning.

■ This comprises six separate shelving units with glass doors and plinths, and costs £3,745 in total from Mon

PAINT A PANEL

No matter what style of kitchen you have, shelving can make it feel lighter and more open. A light blue overlay in this timber kitchen doubles up as a display area and provides a home for plug sockets without damaging the walls.

■ Panel painted in Cool Mint from the Chiselwood Paint Collection. Bespoke kitchens start from £35,000

ROUND THINGS OFF

Sleek, modern cabinetry doesn't have to be stark. This contoured Airsteam trailer-inspired unit boasts curves and vintage charm to add character to your kitchen, right down to classic rivets and aluminium and oak construction.

■ This open wall cupboard costs £2,360 and can be purchased separately or as part of an Air kitchen from deVOL, which starts from £25,000
